Synopsis

This book is for graduate students in the humanities who want to complete their thesis or final project efficiently, expeditiously, and well. It is not another book on writing,and is not a another book on research methods, but one that explains the process from inception through topic development to graduation. It has been used successfully by hundreds of students to complete their MA degrees in the humanities, which is to say art, art history, dance, film, history, literature, linguistics, music, philosophy, theater, and interdisciplinary combinations of these fields.
